

Transportation Commission

Olympic National Park, Tourism, and Transportation

Jefferson County

The Olympic National Park is one of 20 World Heritage Sites in the United States

Hoh Rain Forest, Jefferson County, Washington

Olympic National Park

- Most visited in State
- Almost 3 million visitors/year
- $115 Million Spent in surrounding communities

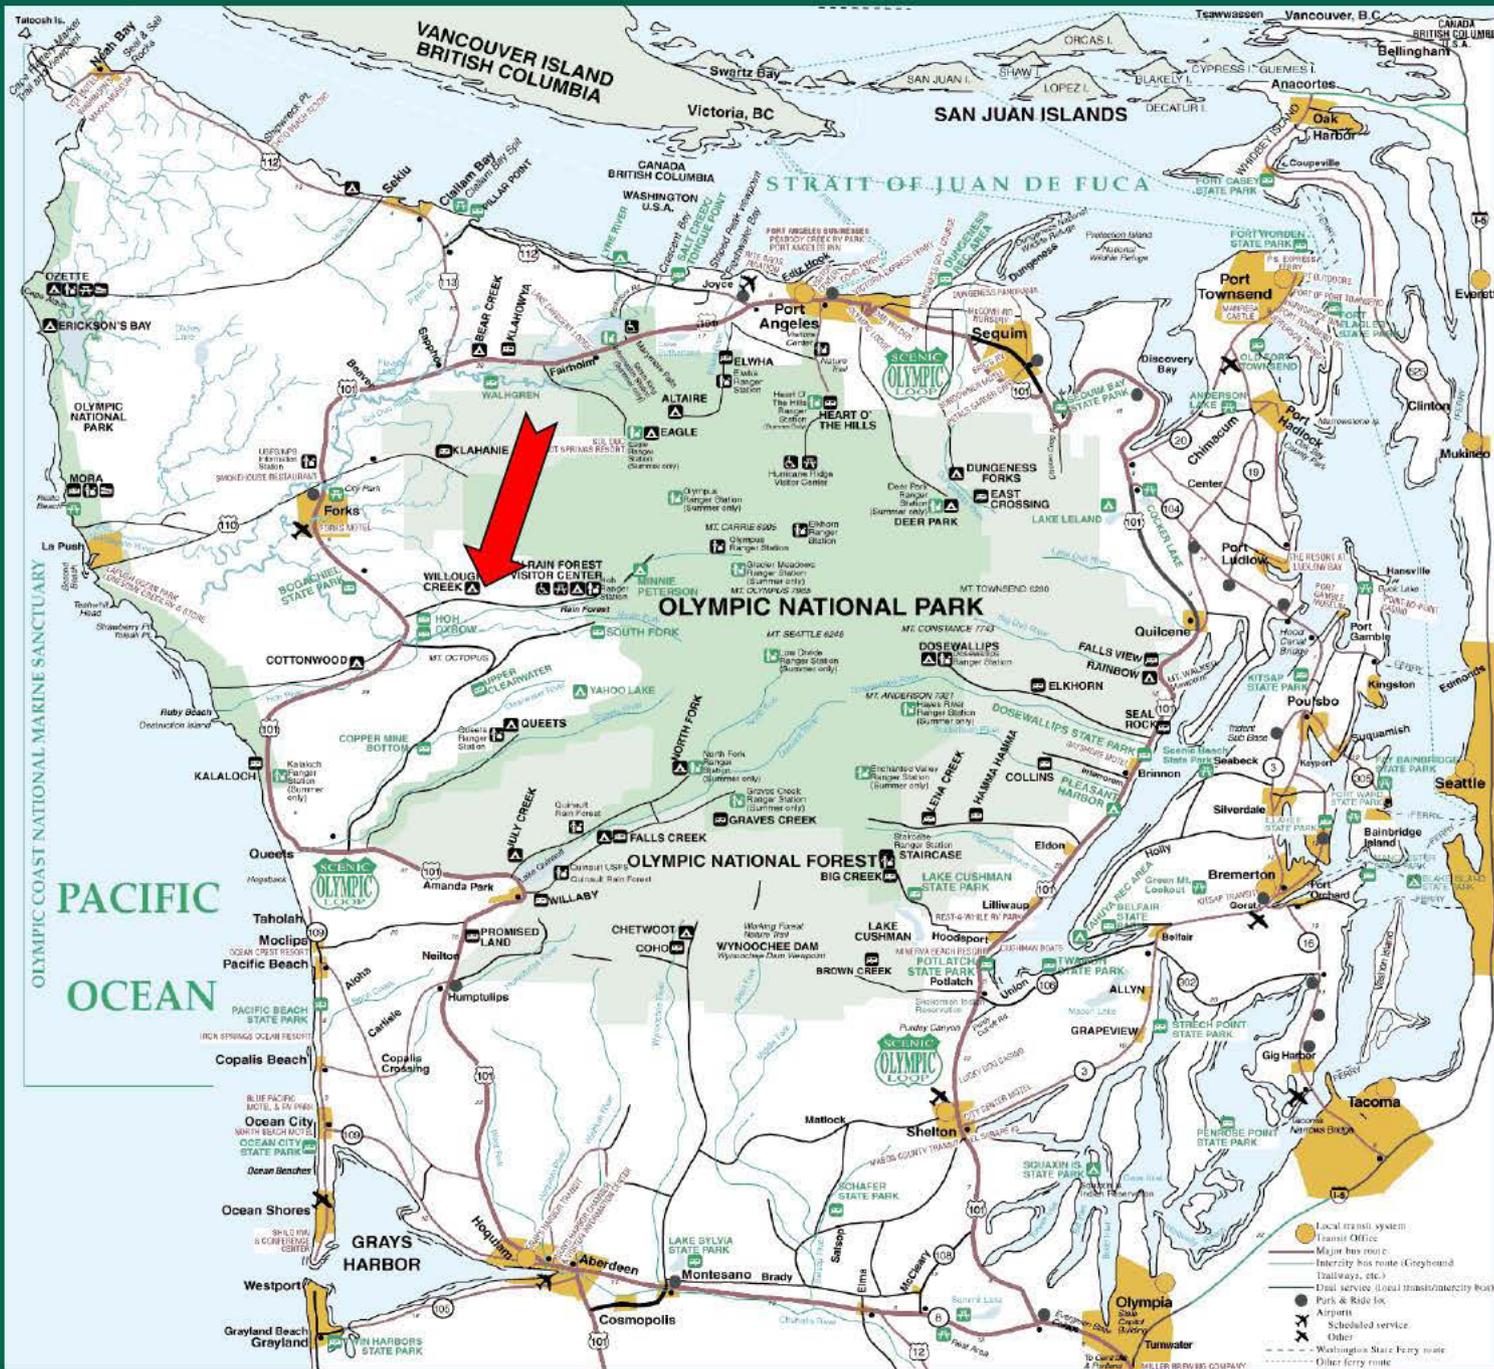

Hoh Rainforest – Upper Hoh Road

- Up to 300,000 visitors/year
- Second most popular destination in Park
- Over 80% of road use
- About 25 residents

Hoh Rain Forest, Jefferson County, Washington

How do you get there?

Washout!

$$ Repair $$

$$$ Mitigation $$$

Bureau of Reclamation Map Showing Historic Channel Locations Since 1939

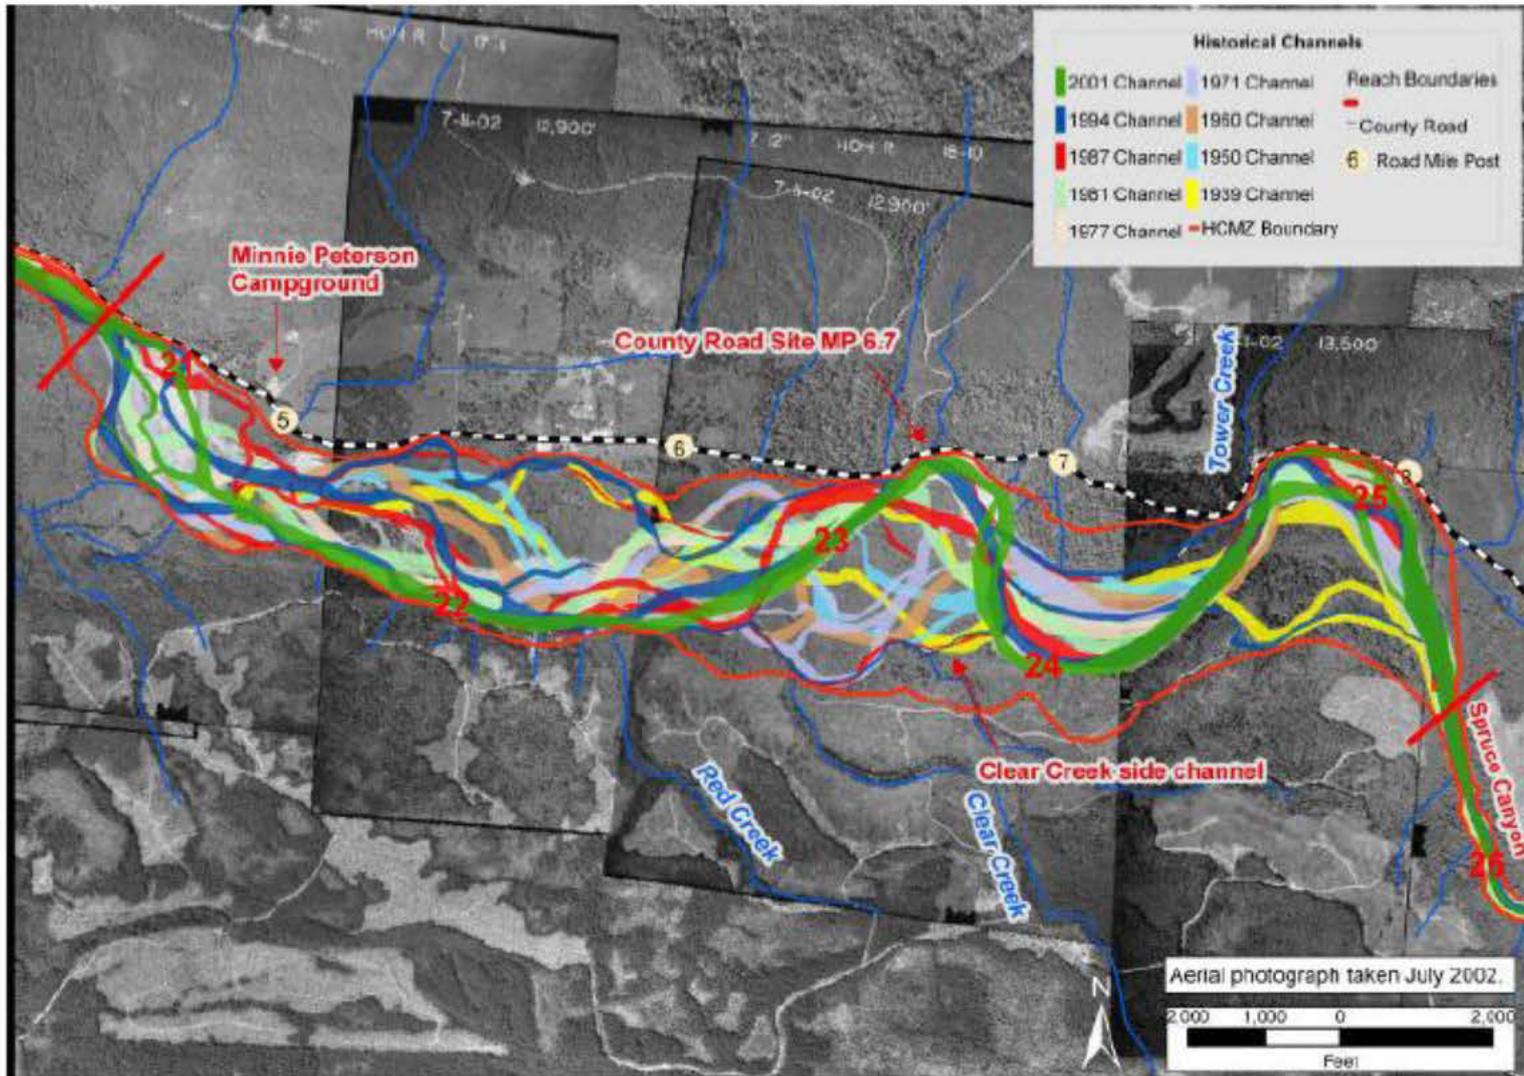

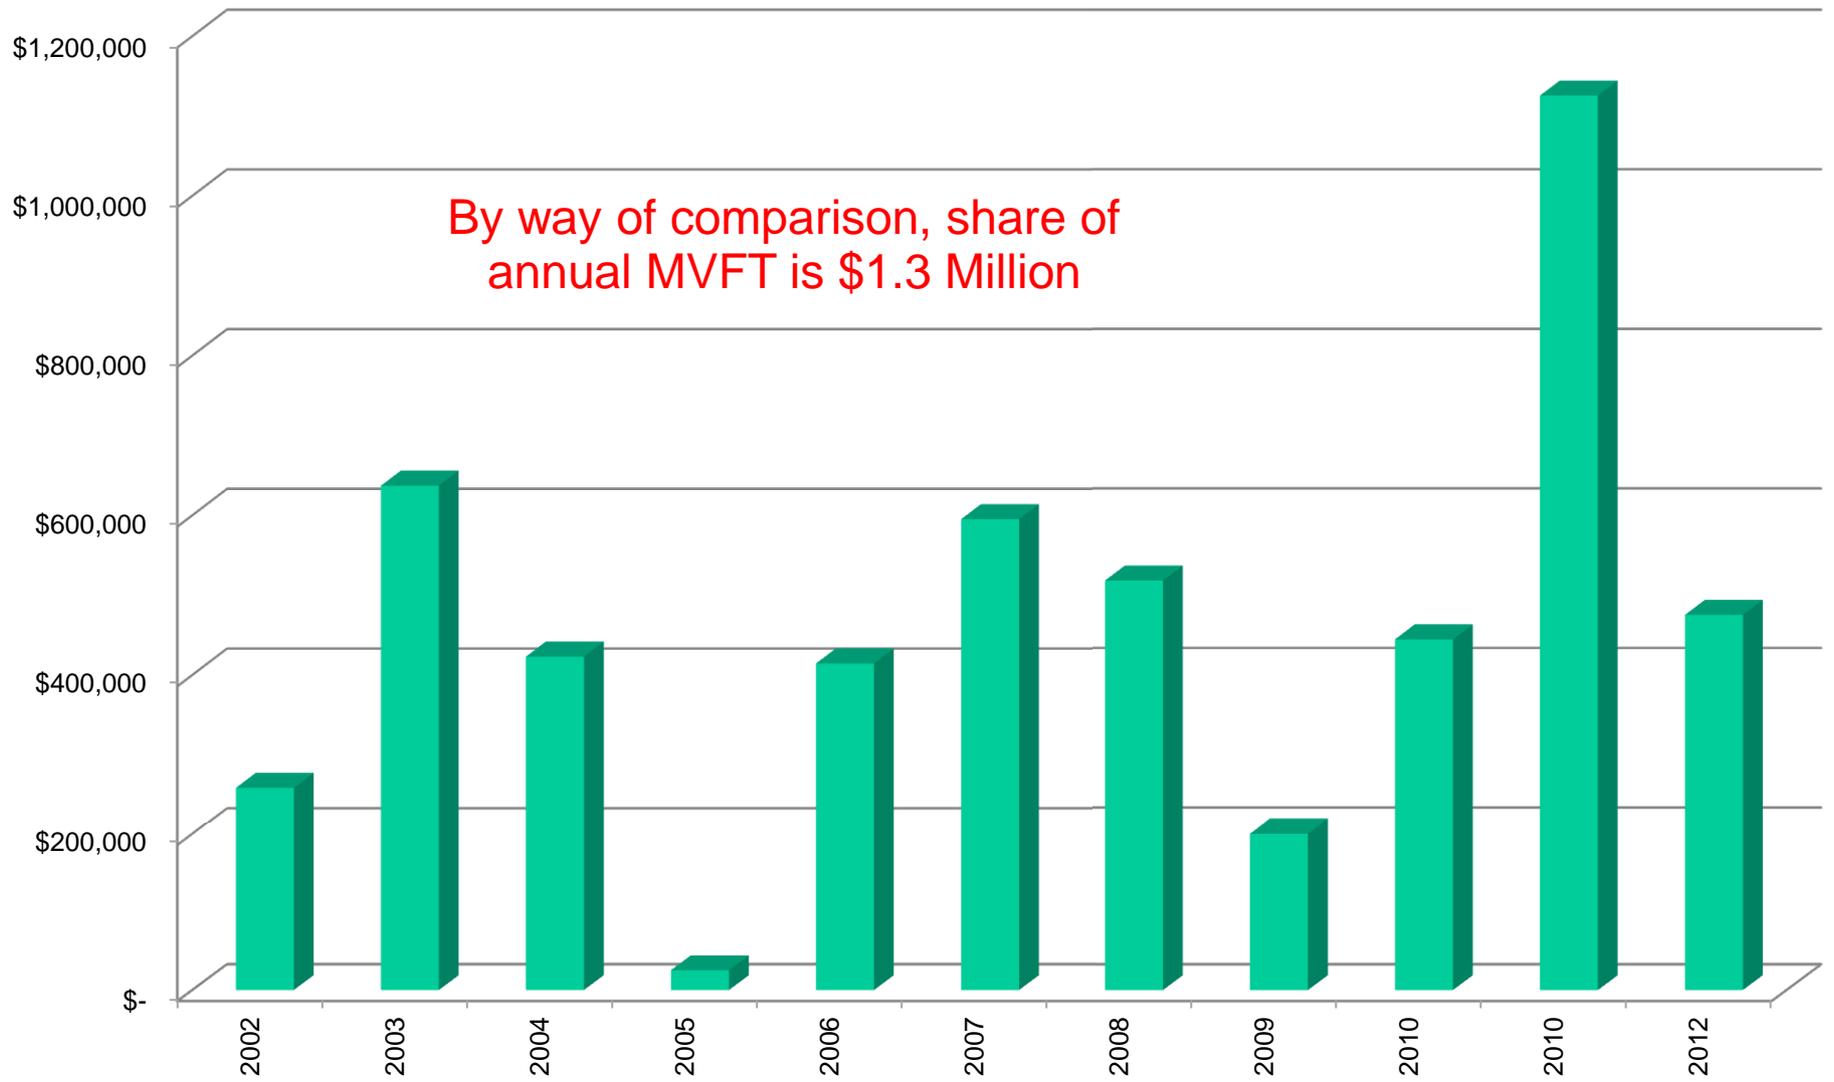

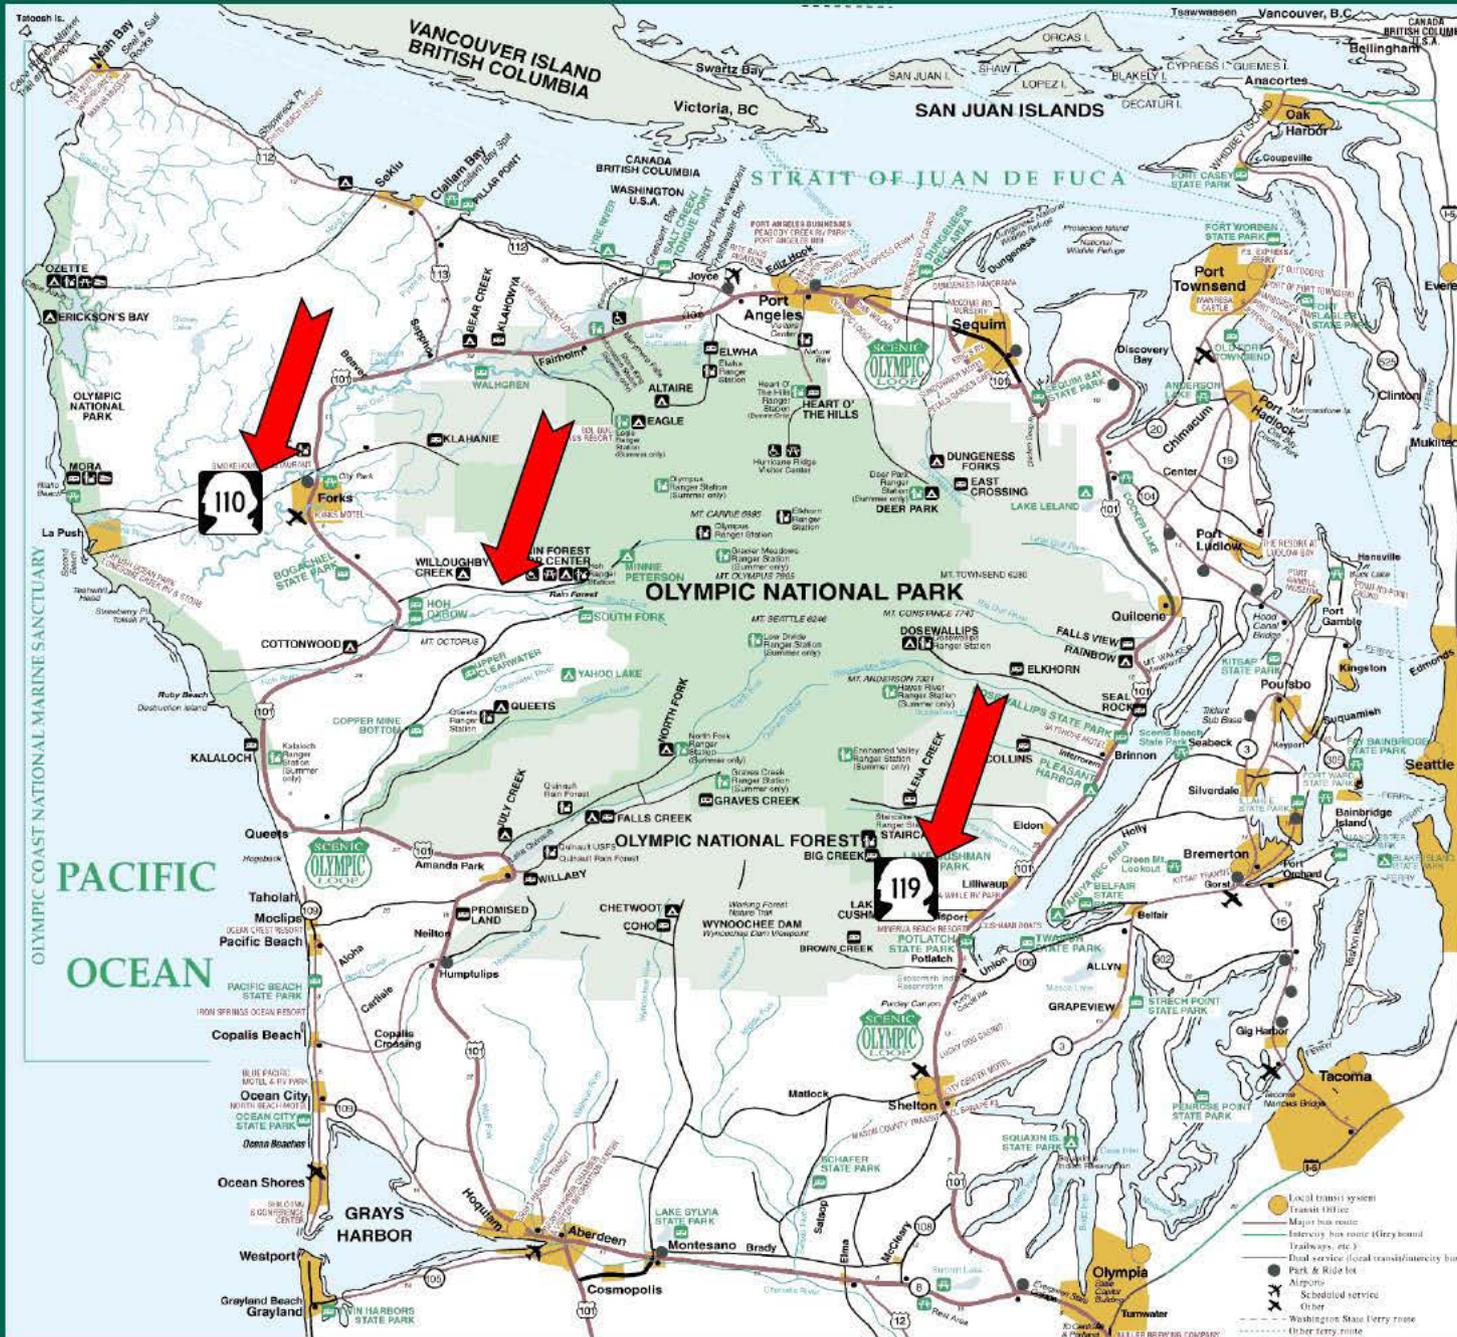

Figure 7. Historical channel alignments in the Morgans Crossing Reach 7.

What's Next?

10 -YEAR HISTORY
UPPER HOH ROAD REPAIR COSTS

Is it time to consider a Route Jurisdiction Transfer (RJT)?

Questions?